Dear Lorraine,

Thank you for agreeing to speak with our students about the job market last week. It was information that they do not get very often nor information that they seek out. You were armed with good information and I hope it caused them to think and plan for their future. I did see some leaving school with their folders. I know we cannot reach each one but most were very attentive and did take in your information. I hope we can have you again in the future. If you have those old wage posters or anything pertinent to the topic, please send them my way. We have a Career Center that we are filling up with good information.

Thank you,

Nancy Truman
